2019-02-15 Robert Lewis 5683 Forever Lane is a combination of stories of various individuals in an apartment building learning that sometimes the love that you have may not be the love that you are looking for, and that it comes in unexpected packages and encounters. Of course love, on occasion, needs a little help. Enter David, the building manager, and Martin, the maintenance man. We start off in the basement and work our way up to the thirteenth floor, through chance encounters, lost love between lovers, unlikely bedfellows and the opening of hearts to let in another. Each story is a stand alone that can be enjoyed on its own or together to remind you love and lust can be found where you least expect it. So climb the stairs of this original Gay Erotica series and enjoy.

2017-12-11 Harry Schneiderman Excerpt from The American Jewish Year Book, 5683, Vol. 24: September 23, 1922, to September 10, 1923 In addition to the usual Directories and Lists, two special features are presented within these pages. The first is a Survey of the Year 5682, prepared by Doctor Linfield. This is a substitute for the Record of Events published in former volumes, and is based largely on the monthly Summaries 'of Events of Jewish Interest compiled by the same writer and issued by the Bureau of Jewish Social Research for the American Jewish Committee since September, 1921. It is believed that readers will find this Survey a highly interesting, useful, and impartial presentation of the most significant events and tendencies in the life of the Jews throughout the world (during the past twelve months). The appendices containing lists of anniversaries, important bequests and gifts, appointments, honors, and elections, and a necrology supplement this article.
